

NOMINATION FOR THE TRUSTEE

In accordance with Club Rule 29, there shall be three Trustees with at least one representative of each gender. At any one time one of the Trustees shall be nominated by the Members and the other two by Council. If approved by the Members, each Trustee shall be elected by the Members at the Annual General Meeting. They shall retire from office after five years unless re-elected for one further term of five years. Any of the Trustees may be removed within their term of appointment only by a majority of Members present at an Extraordinary General Meeting convened for that purpose.
